VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT MAPLEWOOD FLATS

So much of what we do relies on people showing up to offer their time, skills, and passion. Maplewood Flats provides a diverse and exciting range of volunteer opportunities. Both the site and our organisation share a progressive approach to hands-on conservation work, public education, birding, ecological restoration, cultural programming, communications and community engagement.

JOIN ONE OF OUR COMMITTEES (4+ HOURS/MONTH)

PROGRAMS: culture (literary events, art exhibits, public art commissions, publications); education (school programs, summer camps, nature walks)

COMMUNICATIONS: help with our online profile, @maplewoodflats (Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, website, wildbirdtrust.org) or our written publication-Wingspan, trail signage, and media releases

HABITAT: Habitat & Cultural-Use Management Plan, restoration projects, site maintenance, birding and ecological research projects

FUNDRAISING: grant-writing, events, donor appeals, bequeath and bench program
